A Squaw's Revenge

YANKTON, May 20.—The wife of the Yankton Sioux chief Mandan a squaw 70 years of age, was assaulted last Saturday by a soldier, Tall Indian and her person violated She retaliated by severing his jugular vein with a knife. The affair occurred on the Tall reservation Friends of the slain Indian, after holding an inquest concluded that the venerable squaw had acted rightly. They, therefore, presented her with a horse and a quantity of clothing and escorted her to her home on the Yankton reservation

The Men on the Cimbria

ELLSWORTH, Me., May 20—There are evidences that the Russian forces on the Cimbria may soon be divided and part of them transferred. In addition to those left last week sixteen Russian officers, including the paymaster, left yesterday for New York and Boston. To day three Russian engineers from the Cimbria passed through Ellsworth on their way to New York The officers in charge are endeavoring to arrange for conveyance of the men to Bangor to take the cars for New York.

An Absconder Arrested

CHICAGO, May 20—The Journal says Chicago detectives this morning arrested David P Maitland, formerly of Toronto but more recently of San Francisco, whence he ran away after swindling, having gotten his friend and benefactor, Thomas Tinsley, of California into a stock speculation by which Tinsley lost $4,000. Maitland's last act in San Francisco was to take the depreciated stock to sell for Tinsley, and having realized $1,500 on it to start for Toronto without settling He is now locked up awaiting requisition

A Sister to the Cimbria.

PORTLAND, Me., May 21—It is rumored here that a sister ship to the Cimbria is shortly expected at southwest harbor

Unfortunate, Truly.

NEW YORK, May 21—Ex Gov Packard is described by the writer as without occupation and poor in purse and these are not his worst misfortunes. During the past three months he has lost two of his children by death, and now intelligence comes that his mother is dead. Besides this his confirmation as consul to Liverpool is not so sure

Home, Sweet Home.

The Tribune says Grant writes to a friend in this country that he thinks of staying another year, though in the interesting and varied experience incident to his visit and the attentions which he has received from ruling classes as well as the people, and from municipal and civil bodies, he often longs for the day of his return to his native land. He says the attentions which he has received have convinced him of the real admiration which the whole people of Europe, rulers and subjects, have for the greatness of our government, power and progress of the United States, and that these attentions he received are designed more as a token of respect for his country than a personal testimonial to himself,

Notable Death.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Rev Sam'l S Isaacs, editor of the Jewish Messenger and oldest Jewish minister in the country, died last night

A Truly Singular Scene.

[illegible], May 20.—When Mr Blaine was on the floor of the house on Friday last just at the culmination of the struggle, he remarked to one of the Republican members that it was certainly a most novel and peculiar sight to see on one side more than a hundred Democrats fighting solidly together for a measure which at least half of them opposed at heart, and on the other more than a hundred Republicans fighting bitterly against a thing which at least half of them secretly favored and hoped would succeed.

WASHINGTON CITY

Democratic Committees.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Democratic senate committee composed of Representative Blackburn, chairman, Senator McDonald and Representatives Banning, Hunton and Jones, of N. H., elected as a resident committee Gen. A. S. Denver John G Thompson Jas. E. Harvey, and selected [illegible] as treasurer, and Gen Duncan S [illegible] secretary.

Want Gold for Silver.

WASHINGTON, May 20—The treasury department has had some difficulty in the purchase of silver bullion for coining Parties having bullion wanted gold for it, as the bullion contains on an average about 60 per cent of silver to 40 per cent of gold the department would, however, pay only in the standard silver dollars.

A Chandler for Idaho

A Washington special says the president has selected Wm. P. Chandler of Illinois as surveyor-general for Idaho

Retirement of Legal Tenders.

WASHINGTON, May 21—The action of the senate finance committee this morning authorizing a favorable report upon the house bill to forbid further retirement of U S legal tender notes was taken without a formal vote in view of the expectation entertained by several members of the committee that the passage of this bill may have the result of putting a stop to legislation for any further postponement of specie resumption Protection of Railroad Rights.

WASHINGTON, May 21—Argument was made by Gov. Safford of Arizona, before the house military affairs committee to day in opposition to the bill sanctioning the construction of a bridge of the Southern Pacific Railroad across the Colorado at Fort Yuma. Delegate Stevens, Judge Osborne, Gov Safford and Power of Arizona appeared before the committee to support the assertions of Safford that the people of the territory are deeply interested in the railroad, the only one which has entered its borders, and strongly desired the maintenance of railway facilities thus afforded

The Gen. Shields Bill.

The proposition to place Gen. Shields on the retired list was rejected by a majority of one, mainly on the ground of an unwillingness to establish an unwise precedent, and it would undoubtedly have passed if not made objectionable to some senators by the Grant amendment. The bill increasing the pension to an amount sufficient for his support will soon be passed without opposition.

Debate on the Army Bill.

General debate on the army bill will be closed in the house to-morrow. Present indications are that it will run several days under the five minute rule in the committee of the whole, and that its proposed reduction of the force of the army will be defeated by a small majority. The final vote, however, will be very close, and the result is decidedly uncertain.

Public Lands Committee.

The senate committee on public lands to day heard D. M. Wozencroft in advocacy of a bill granting him the Colorado desert on condition of providing means for its irrigation. The same committee to-day reported to the senate without amendment Sargent's bill providing that the fees allowed registers and receivers for testimony reduced by them by writing for homestead and pre emption claims shall not be counted as part of their maximum compensation

A favorable report was also made on the house bill which credits to homestead settlers the time during which they have occupied the same land under a pre-emption filing before they changed their filings in accordance with existing law

In Articulo Mortis.

WATSONVILLE, May 21.—Ira Allen one of the pioneers of Pajaro valley, was found in a dying condition at his room in the Mansion House this afternoon from the effects of an overdose of laudanum or morphine which he either took with suicidal intent or to deaden the pains of neuralgia, from which he had been suffering, could not be determined. He was in rather straightened circumstances and depressed in spirits.

A Bill to Settle Oregon Land Titles

The senate public lands committee directed Grover to report for passage a bill amendatory of the act creating the office of surveyor general for Oregon The purpose of this bill is to cure defects in a number of old land titles in Oregon where naturalization papers were not [illegible] and where certain oaths which can be readily supplied were inadvertently omitted in making proofs before the land office

The Treaties of Paris and Washington

LONDON, May 21—In the house of commons this afternoon Sir John Holkere, attorney general in reply to an inquiry said he had heard of ships purchased by persons said to act on behalf of the Russians but there is no reason to suppose such ships will be employed in the event of war as privateers in contravention of the Paris declarations There is no reason to believe the United States will depart from observance of the three rules of the Washington treaty There is no necessity of discussing the responsibility resting on the governments of Russia and the United States since there is no reason to suppose they would violate their respective engagements.

Refugees in Distress

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 21—Five thousand refugees assembled to day and sent a deputation to the porte asking relief declaring their provisions had failed and sickness was increasing among them The porte promised that their rations would henceforth be regularly distributed

NOVA SCOTIA.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

WASHINGTON May 20

[Continuation of Monday's proceedings]

Davis said he would vote for an increase of pension for Gen Shields but he could not see that it was right to place him on the retired list Had he been in the house of representatives he should have voted for Gen Shields for doorkeeper because politics sat very lightly on him and he would not have had anybody to quarrel with him about the vote

Lamar said it always gave him pleasure to vote for measures to confer greater honor upon a gallant soldier where there was an indication that such was the will of the people He voted for the amendment supposing it was submitted in good faith but if the motive however was to defeat the bill for the relief of Gen Shields he would not co operate in any such movement any further

Sargent said he offered the amendment in good faith and he now insisted upon it It was not fair now to say the compliment offered to Scott and now offered to Gen Grant was intended to reflect upon him The American republic owed this to Gen Grant He was now traveling in Europe Whether he would be a poor man when that trip was over he (Sargent) did not know

Cockrell said the amendment of Sargent had been adopted by the senate in committee of the whole, and he now gave notice that when the bill should be reported to the senate he would renew that amendment and call for a vote upon it He inquired of the senator from California (Sargent) why he had not introduced a bill to retire Gen Grant before, as he was so much in favor of it

Sargent said to be frank he had no idea such a bill would be passed.

WASHINGTON May 21

At the conclusion of the morning hour the senate resumed consideration of the bill to place the name of James Shields on the retired list of the army with the rank of brigadier general and the bill having been considered in committee of the whole was reported to the senate

The question being on concurring in the amendment made in committee of the whole yesterday to place General Grant on the retired list Cockrell demanded the yeas and nays and the amendment was concurred in yeas 30 nays 28 a strict party vote Republicans voting in the affirmative Democrats in the negative

After debate Thurman moved to strike out all after the enacting clause of the bill as an amendment and enact in lieu thereof a proposition authorizing the secretary of the interior to place the name of Gen Shields on the pension list at the rate of $100 per month A lengthy debate ensued

After a lengthy discussion Thurman's amendment as substitute for the bill as amended to grant Gen Shields a pension of $100 a month was rejected yeas 31 nays 33

The question then recurred on the passage of the bill as amended placing Gen Shields on the retired list with the rank of brigadier general and General Grant on the retired list with the rank of general and it was rejected yeas 30 nays 31.

Ferry said he was instructed by a majority of the committee on finance to report back house bill to forbid further retirement of U S legal tender notes

Paddock, from the public lands committee reported back house bill for relief of public land settlers

Matthews said he would call up the Texas Pacific bill to-morrow but now yielded to Lamar who with permission of the senate made an address it being understood the bill forbidding the further retirement of legal tenders will be considered to morrow

House.

Phillip argued that the army was needed to secure frontier settlers as they have never been secured Within fifteen months two of the most terrible wars known in history had taken place yet Hewitt said there would be no more wars

Banning advocated the bill He dissented decidedly to the sentiment of Gen Sherman—that without the army the nation would be a mob—and to the secretary of war's report favoring an army to keep down riots He said there was a class of communists who sat in arm chairs and stole railroads and wanted armies to protect their theft and keep their ill gotten gains Communism came from bad administration The Credit Mobilier Pacific Mail subsidy salary grab and theft of the presidency—these things led men to believe there is no honesty in public affairs He favored old time honesty in administration of the government The bill would give the country a better more efficient and less expensive army

Caldwell favored the bill but said the president only did his duty in ordering regulars to quell riots when so requested by governors last summer

The committee rose and the house took a recess

Sparks a member of the appropriations committee supported the army bill The attempt of the committee to reorganize the army had been met with sensational rumors about it dismantling [illegible] Coming down to the question of the use of the army in suppressing domestic violence he had read a portion of the report of the secretary of war in which he declares that the army should be the [illegible] of the United States what the police is to cities [illegible] the secretary meant that riots should be suppressed by the regular army he emphatically dissented [illegible] money monopoly might bring about a state of things which it was a test of [illegible] but when labor got beyond its legitimate demands and became communistic and incendiary then the great middle class would put its hand upon and crush it out

THE GREAT INVESTIGATION!

Hon John Sherman Writes a Letter to Mr Potter, of the Committee on Frauds, in which he offers to Prove some things which the Democrats don't want established

WASHINGTON May 21—The following is a letter of Sherman to Clarkson N Potter chairman [illegible] the Potter resolution

SIR: I observe that the resolution of the house under which your committee is organized singles me out personally by name from among twenty or more gentlemen who were present at the request of President Grant or the chairman of the Democratic National Committee to attend and witness the action of the returning board upon the presidential election returns in Louisiana and in substance charges that at the election in East Feliciana parish and in part of West Feliciana parish in Louisiana the Republican vote was withheld and not cast in pursuance of the execution of a conspiracy by certain voters that in furtherance of such conspiracy James E Anderson supervisor of registration in East Feliciana and D A Weber supervisor of registration in West Feliciana falsely protested that said election in such parishes had not been free and fair and that thereupon the returning board of said state falsely and fraudulently excluded the vote of said precincts and by means thereof and of other false and fraudulent action of said returning board the choice of the people of the state was annulled and reversed and that such action by said Weber and Anderson was induced or encouraged by assurances of Jno Sherman now secretary of the treasury

This resolution requires you to investigate three allegations and upon the truth of these depends the accusation against me viz

1st. That there was a conspiracy among the voters to withhold and not cast their votes with a view to make a false charge as to the election

2 That in point of fact there was a free and fair election in East and West Feliciana which was falsely protested and returned by said Anderson and Weber by which the votes of those parishes were falsely and fraudulently excluded by the returning board

3d That the offense of Anderson and Weber was encouraged by assurances from me

With a view therefore to meet this accusation which so far as it affects me I declare and know to be absolutely destitute of even the shadow of truth I respectfully ask and make formal application for leave to be represented before your committee by counsel in investigation of charges affecting myself personally I tender and offer to prove that in point of fact the election in East and West Feliciana parishes was governed and controlled by force violence and intimidation so revolting as to excite the common indignation of all who became conversant with it and that proof was submitted to that effect not only before the returning board in evidence contained in executive documents of the second session of the 44th congress but also in testimony taken by the committee of the senate on privileges and elections I will if allowed furnish the names of witnesses whom I desire to examine before you to prove the truth of this statement as to said parishes and that the protests referred to were true supported by testimony and properly acted upon and sustained by the returning board

To my personal conduct during this examination I invite your fair and candid scrutiny with entire confidence that not only myself but my associates of both political parties acted honestly and properly and from a sense of public duty I have requested Sam'l Shellabarger to deliver this to you and respectfully designate him as the gentleman I would desire on my part to represent to cross examine witnesses testifying in relation to the charges against me and who will as my counsel tender evidence in proof of this statement The favor of an early answer is requested Very respectfully

Corbin's Prospects for Unseating Senator Butler of South Carolina

[Washington Telegram to Cincinnati Commercial]

The friends of Corbin who seek to unseat Senator Butler, of South Carolina, claim to have good assurance of a majority in the senate for opening the question on this contest upon its merits and expect among their supporters for this proposition Kellogg and others of that ilk in the senate Senator Thurman of the judiciary committee stated to night that this subject has been thoroughly talked of among senators and lawyers of both parties and they concur without an exception in the opinion that Butler's case is res adjudicata and that he holds his seat in the senate as conclusively as does any member of that body that if perchance by a vote of the senate Butler should be unseated it would establish a precedent which would unseat Kellogg next year when the Democrats will have the majority in the senate He remarked "It is all nonsense for Corbin to pursue the matter Both Butler and Kellogg are firmly seated

An Independent View of the Railroad Question.

[From the Salem Record]

It seems that the directors of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company having taken full consideration of the bill now before congress extending the time for the completion of their road have concluded that the same is insufficient as offering an inducement and security for capital to invest in the bonds of the company It is true that at the time when this bill was put in shape the chief officer of the company was in Washington and expressed himself satisfied with the bill but his opinion did not pledge the company and was no acceptance on their part of the modified form of the grant The bill fixes the maximum price of the lands at a less price than the company think will afford inducement for capitalists to invest and objection is made to the section that opens the road down the Columbia for the joint use of the Salt Lake road if built and even though that road may not be built still investors object to any provision of the law that shall in any way hamper or restrict the future business of the company The last objection may not be a fatal one and we confess that if possible in the future to see competing railroad transportation with the east it is of the utmost importance to secure it.

Science and the Minneapolis Explosion.

[From the Chicago Tribune]

Investigators have found that grain ground to an impalpable powder generates a highly inflammable and explosive gas under certain conditions and to some such cause the terrible disaster at Minneapolis is traceable as is now supposed. But that is mere conjecture That supposition however would be greatly strengthened if we knew that the big Washburn mill in which the explosion took place was badly ventilated and at the time of the deplorable casualty the windows and doors were all tightly closed leaving the immense building like a huge balloon filled with an inflammable gas that the light of a candle or the spark from a cogwheel might explode If this be the true theory, then the chemist has, in a solid form before him the material for his investigations and a broad hint toward the solution of the difficult and important problem The grime smut dust and other foreign materials that find their way into the flouring mills will form the base for his experience and by tracing their combinations according to the chemical law of definite and multiple proportions, he may be able to discover the cause of a disaster that ruined $1 000 000 worth of valuable property in almost the twinkle of an eye and as suddenly ended the earthly career of eighteen industrious citizens But it may be found that another powerful agent suddenly entered the arena at the critical moment and played a prominent part in this horrible tragedy It is possible that electricity is to be charged with a conspicuous share in this conspiracy of nature's mightiest elements which ended in a frightful saturnalia of destruction, devastation and death

Communism and Ku Klux.

[From the Louisville Courier Journal]

According to the northern newspapers, there is not a large city in that section where the communists are not armed with repeating rifles and are drilling with the avowed purpose of making war on capital The fact is suggestive of the fearful indignation of the Republican organs in 1876 because in the southern states regularly organized militia companies met for drill according to the usual custom It was asserted that the federal government should immediately break up the rifle clubs as incendiary organizations If that is the proper doctrine why don't the Republicans break up the fire bug organizations in the northern states?

OPEN LETTER

[illegible]

In your speech at Portland on the [illegible] inst you are reported by THE OREGONIAN as using the following language:

He wished that the people would forget that there had been a rebellion He never favored rebellion or secession the Democratic party was not and never had been the party of rebellion At this point he made a lengthy comparison of the late rebellion and the revolution of one hundred years ago

That you are wilfully ignorant of the fundamental principles of the Democracy I propose to show in few words The Democratic party was first organized and its principles clearly defined under Jefferson's administration and the celebrated Virginia and Kentucky resolutions were made a part of every national Democratic platform from the day of their adoption down to the nomination of James Buchanan for the presidency and are looked upon by prominent Democrats everywhere as being the best exposition of the constitution ever written They affirm the right of a state to arrest the operation of an act of congress within her limits which she deems unconstitutional and declare that the federal government is the judge of the extent of its own powers They declare that the laws of congress known as the alien and sedition laws should not be executed within the boundaries of their respective states I ask you sir Mr John Whiteaker if this looks like the Democratic party was not nor never had been the party of rebellion? What do you do with the southern states comprising a population of ten millions of inhabitants They cradled the Democratic party in its infancy and nurtured it until it grew to strength and mightiness They are all now without exception Democratic and they too initiated the rebellion and fought it through in good faith believing they were right Will you not admit that they form a very considerable portion of the Democratic party

And O most sage Democratic nominee for congress you institute a comparison between the revolution of a hundred years ago and that inaugurated seventeen years since in order to show that the actors of the former were patriots because they were successful while the latter who were unsuccessful were wicked rebels There is a distinction between the two and it is this The former were colonies subjects of Great Britain and owed allegiance to that government When they cast that allegiance aside they necessarily became rebels The latter were citizens of sovereign states and owed no allegiance to their federal government which they assisted to create therefore could not be rebels

Honorable sir it is seldom a candidate for so high an office as that for which you are running manifests so great ignorance of the principles of the party that has placed him in the field Take from this Democratic party its doctrine of state sovereignty and its rebellious proclivities and it would be a party without principles worthy of consideration I object to your speech sir because it leaves the states without remedy against usurpation of power Know you not that all of free government there is in the world has been wrested from tyrants by rebels? Your old friends on the Willamette claim that you were in sympathy with the rebels during the war and express surprise at your late utterances I leave you to make your peace with them as best you may

DEMOCRATIC INDEPENDENCE

THE LEAVEN WORKING IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY—OMINOUS MUTTERINGS

From the Union Sentinel

Democrats come let us reason together Let us lay aside all the cankered prejudices of the past of whatever name or nature Let us hold our ticket up and examine it from every standpoint let us examine by what means and for what reason were these men dragged before the public and then let us ask ourselves in all honesty and sincerity if it would be best to elect them Would not a partial defeat be more to the party than to elect men whom the public in some instances have every reason to believe to be but the figurehead or handy man of an unprincipled ring that has for years controlled the Democratic party of this state entirely ignoring principles and causing the people to indorse fraud at the polls at the crack of the party lash Then let each and every one go to the polls determined to act in accordance with the dictations of an honest unbiased conscience.

First then let us examine the state ticket briefly Does any Democrat presume to believe that the name of A H Brown of eastern Oregon would have been placed on the ticket if the voice of the people had been heard? Is it not a well known fact that the ticket was moulded and shaped by ring managers with the sole aim of getting Brown nominated for state treasurer in order that interested parties could be furnished with state funds with which to buy pools play poker and speculate on call loans? Is it not a well known fact that by the loan made by Brown to the West Portland Homestead Association the state was defrauded out of a large amount of money? Is it not generally known that the interest on $40 000 lock bond funds in the hands of the state treasurer during the fiscal year 1875–6 has never been accounted for? Is it not a well known fact that by removing the mortgage from Governor Grover's Salem homestead and placing it on unimproved barren lots the State was defrauded swindled or probably it would be more appropriate for a Democrat to say sharped out of several thousand dollars It is not generally known that J H Hackleman has drawn from the vaults the sum of $2 252 33 for assisting A H Brown as state treasurer and can any Democrat point out any law that would entitle him to that or any other amount

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1878.

LANDS AND RAILWAYS.

The policy of granting lands to aid construction of railroads is a policy which has been much debated. Formerly it met with little or no opposition from any quarter; but within the past few years there has been developed, particularly among the people in the older states, no inconsiderable sentiment against it. But in the newer states and in the territories, where want of railway transportation is felt, and where, without such transportation, there are few inducements for settlement, the policy is still deemed a necessary one. Here, it is considered very generally to be altogether wise to set apart certain portions of the public domain in order to secure for the country at large the general advantages which railways confer. Only recently has an effort been made to check this policy and paralyze its operation by making restrictions as to land grants which render them valueless for the purpose for which they are nominally designated. Lands cannot be given to build railroads, and at the same time withheld for the settler. If any railroad is to be secured through a grant of lands, such grant must have few conditions and no onerous ones. If this is too great a price to pay for a railroad, then cease talking about a railroad. But in every case alternate sections on both sides all along the line are reserved for settlers. The object of the land grant policy is to set apart a portion of the public domain to build railways for the general benefit of the country. A railway so created is an inestimable advantage to the other land along its line. Alternate sections reserved are worth ten times as much as the whole extent of country would be were no railway built. The fatuous notion, of recent origin, that railroads may be constructed on land grants, while settlers may have the increased value which such railroads give to the lands granted, is simply nullification of the whole policy of aiding railroads by grants of lands. It is just as well to give up at once the idea that a country whose dependence for railroads is on land grants may both keep the lands and get the roads. Under most favorable conditions it is not easy to build railroads upon land grants. No road ever yet was constructed out of the resources obtained from a land subsidy, even when such subsidy was an unconditional one. In every case other resources are found necessary. And when sales even of the best lands are limited to a price which can yield very little; when no sales can be made except in small parcels; when the company which is expected to build a road must await the government survey, and when all possible restrictions that can render a grant unavailable are thrown around it, the whole business becomes merely a farce, and the result is such a bill as that absurd thing which was passed by the senate a few weeks ago, nominally in favor of the Northern Pacific, but rejected by that company as worthless for any purpose.

It will be necessary, if the country is to get this road, to set apart certain lands to aid its construction, and to put the grant in such shape that money may be had upon it at once and in sums large enough to build speedily considerable sections of the road. Otherwise we shall get no result. Cumbered with restrictions and rendered valueless to the country by a whole catalogue of conditions and reservations, a grant like this is no grant. It gives nothing that can be made available. If we are to have any road the alternate sections on each side within certain limits must be donated outright for it. The other sections are reserved for the settler, and will be made valuable by the road. The company must be allowed, as other companies heretofore have been, to sell the land for what it will bring, that is to say, for what it is worth to the purchasers. The terms of the grant also must be without conditions which would prevent the company from raising money upon it by mortgage in advance of sales, for the country wants the road built quickly as possible. The northwest is not going to get any road without paying this price for it. No company can ever do anything under the complications and encumbrances which so far have been insisted on. If we don't think the land ought to be given for a railroad let us say so. But let us not profess to give and still not give it. In other parts of the country this land grant policy has been productive of the greatest benefits. See what it has done for Minnesota. The press of that state, knowing what its results have been, urges strongly the extension of the Northern Pacific grant. Minnesota has found this policy of giving a portion of the public domain in order to secure railway facilities a policy most beneficial to all classes and all business in the state. It has been one of the most important conditions of the mighty development witnessed there. It is the policy for us of the remote northwest. But we shall not realize it through any pretence of giving the land and yet not giving it. Minnesota's senators have never insisted on insertion of conditions that would render worthless the grants which have been solicited for their state. Nor has the like ever been done by an Oregon senator till now.

"NATIONAL" PLATFORM.

It is worth while to examine the platform constructed by the new political organization called the National party in a great state like Pennsylvania; for therein we find an effort to formulate the ideas which it is supposed are producing the great social and political ferment which is one of the phenomena of the time. When there comes to be a necessity of putting vague dreams and desires into a definite form of statement, there is difficulty, of course. The resolutions declare that government should furnish aid to families desirous of settling on the public lands; insist on the eight hour system of labor; call for a graduated income tax; urge that national paper money, not based alone on the metals, gold and silver, but on the entire wealth of the nation—whatever that may be—should be issued in sufficient quantities to revive our prostrate industries; and demand that as money represents accumulated labor, the annual increase or interest should be limited to the general average of yearly increase in all branches of American industry which does not now exceed three per cent per annum. These are the principal features of this platform. The ruling idea is to abolish labor, or reduce it to a minimum, and require the property and government of a country to support its people. Just how any issue of paper currency, which isn't wealth and can't create wealth, could revive prostrate industries, does not clearly appear. There is more paper currency now than the business of the country has any call for.

RUSSIAN MAGNATES.

Ex-Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania, once minister to the court of St. Petersburg, is writing in the Christian Union an interesting series of articles on Russia. In his judgment the statesmen who surround the czar's throne are the equals of any in the world. Gortschakoff has more power than is represented by the chancellor of the German empire, or by the prime minister of England, and he enjoys to a wonderful extent the confidence of his sovereign. He is also very popular with the nation, from the fact that the people believe, and justly too, that he was a firm advocate of the manumission of the serf. He was very anxious for it, and had the sagacity to understand, after the Crimean war, which resulted very disastrously for Russia, and which exhausted the nation financially, that it was not politic for the government to carry on another war against so many nations unless it had the stability that could be secured only through a middle class. Next to Gortschakoff in importance Mr. Curtin says is Ruytan, the finance minister, who has been for a long time in place. He is from one of the Baltic provinces and is, as his name indicates, of German descent. He has made finance his study; he travelled in the United States many years ago, before he came to his present position, and is a very able man. More before the public than Ruytan is Ignatieff. That he is regarded as one of the leading men of Russia is indicated by the fact of his many years residence at Constantinople as ambassador, and by the prominence given him in all affairs connected with the recent war and the present negotiation on the "eastern question."

One of the silliest of all the silly financial bills that have received grave consideration at the hands of the present congress is a bill that recently passed the house to forbid the secretary of the treasury to retire greenbacks, either before or after resumption. A parallel to this would be the case of a president of a suspended bank who should say to the cashier, "Announce that we resume payments to-day, but only in such way that the volume of our notes in circulation shall not be diminished." Of course, if no greenback is to be "retired," there can be no resumption, because resumption means the payment in gold or silver of such greenbacks as the people shall present for redemption. Some people will present their notes for redemption, and if they are paid the greenbacks will be "contracted" to just that extent. If they are not paid there is no resumption. Congress goes on the idea that the wealth of the country is increased by the debts of the government.

It is stated on reliable authority that it will cost the tribes in the Indian territory $23,000 this year to keep a delegation in Washington to look after their interests, and more particularly to see that their rights are not taken away from them through the intrigues of unscrupulous speculators. One of this delegation, a prominent chief, recently declared that his people would gladly pay the United States $50,000 just to be let alone in the enjoyment of the rights which the United States has solemnly guaranteed. Such a commentary upon our public faith speaks louder than the severest denunciation.

By statements published in the New York Herald it appears that in 1865 there was thirty thousand more shoemakers in Massachusetts than there are to-day, although the products of that branch of industry in Massachusetts exceed by the enormous amount of $71,000,000 the production of 1855. The extraordinary increase of products, with so great a diminution in the number of hands employed, is of course attributable to the introduction of the most approved labor-saving machinery, and by which Massachusetts commands, to a great extent the markets of the world in the shoe trade.

In half a dozen lines the Boston Journal condenses more common sense than can be found in all the greenback-inflation literature of the last five years. Thus: "Complaining, repining, scolding, wishing for good days and voting for Greenback demagogues will not bring prosperity, but it can be partially achieved by each man making the most of all his resources and doing all that he can to make himself self-supporting."

Yesterday in a remark about certain racy correspondence in relation to a school fund loan the statement appeared, "This fine writing we are glad to say isn't wanted." Read wasted. Most readers will agree that it was "wanted," decidedly.

CITY.

CHURCH DEDICATED.—From the Astoria paper of Tuesday, we obtain the following particulars of the church dedication at that place: "In accordance with previous announcement the dedication service of the First Baptist Church of this city, took place on Sunday. The Revs. J. C. Baker, of Salem, and A. S. Coats, of Portland, were present. A large and intelligent audience greeted Rev. Baker at 11 o'clock A. M. His sermon to the people on "Christian Progress" was a masterly discourse; none who heard it will ever forget it. At the close of the sermon Mr. I. W. Case, chairman of the board of trustees, read a report of the financial condition of the church which showed that there was needed nearly [illegible] to cover all indebtedness. An appeal was now made for the required amount, and in a very short time $650 was raised. Promptly at 7½ o'clock P. M., an exceedingly large and intelligent audience was in waiting to hear the Rev. A. S. Coats, of Portland. He spoke of "The Church as a Means of Teaching." This discourse, to use no stronger words, was grand, impressive and instructive. The appeal was again renewed for the remainder of money to pay off the indebtedness, which was very readily responded to, and to the astonishment of the people, every dollar was raised."

A STRONG SUBJECT.—The late commercial editor of our morning contemporary once wrote that in all his commercial experience, extending over a period of 20 years or more, he never found a more difficult subject in the market to wrestle with than potatoes. He ought to try some of the butter now coming to this market. Its strength would soon convince him that handling potatoes was mere child's play. Merchants find it very difficult to sell a great portion of it at any price. There is still great need of reform among the makers of the butter makers.

TOO MANY PASSENGERS.—Capt. John Evans, master of the British ship City of Halifax, was arrested yesterday charged with carrying more Chinese passengers than is allowed by law. He was taken before U. S. commissioner Lamson, but waiving an examination was held to appear in the sum of $1,000. On giving the required bonds Capt. Evans was discharged.

GONE TO SEA.—The U. S. steamer Shubrick, Capt. Korts, left Astoria yesterday and passed out over the bar, bound for San Francisco via Cape Foulweather, Cape Gregory, Cape Arago, etc., in the lighthouse service. She has a quantity of lumber to put ashore at Foulweather, flour, etc., at Gregory, and bridging materials at Arago.

ARCATA.—The little steamer Arcata, which arrived here yesterday and now lies at Central wharf, lay in at Trinidad for two days because of strong head winds. Her steaming time was only four days. She is rather a neat, quick little vessel.

OREGON PRESBYTERY.—Mr. D. M. Keene, the stated clerk, desires it to be announced that the Oregon presbytery will meet in the C. P. Church at Abiqua, Marion county, Friday, the 24th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

EXPORTS.—During the four months ending April 30th, there were shipped from this port for San Francisco 105,320 dozen eggs against 95,933 dozen during the corresponding time in 1877.

PASSENGERS AND FREIGHT.—The steamship City of Chester, which sailed for this port yesterday, brings 84 cabin, 147 steerage passengers and 750 tons of assorted cargo.

K. OF P.—There will be a very important meeting of Excelsior Lodge K. of P. this (Wednesday) evening. A full attendance is desired.

FAVORS.—J. K. Gill & Co. will accept thanks for late files of Eastern periodicals, Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie's and others.

PICNICS.

The cars will leave Eugene on Saturday morning, June 1st, for East Portland park, where the excursionists from any point on the railroad may participate in a grand picnic, after which they will visit Portland. The train will return same day.

To-day the Red Men of this city will hold their annual picnic at East Portland Park. If the clerk of the weather is inclined to be gracious, a splendid time may be confidently anticipated. No effort has been spared to render the occasion not only successful but thoroughly enjoyable. An immense crowd may be expected.

A grand excursion and Sunday school picnic to Vancouver is to be given by the Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church, Oregon City, on the 30th inst., Decoration Day. The steamer S. T. Church has been chartered for the occasion and will leave Oregon City at quarter to seven A. M., touching at Oswego, Milwaukie, East Portland and this city for excursionists. The boat will land in this city at Flanders' wharf at 8:30, and, after remaining 15 minutes will proceed onward to Vancouver, reaching there in time to witness the grand parade and the imposing ceremonies of Decoration Day. The public are cordially invited. Tickets for the round trip from East Portland and this city, 50 cents; from Oswego and Milwaukie, 75 cents. Children half price.

PERSONAL.

B. E. Thomas, Esq., postmaster at Prineville, Wasco county, is in the city. He has doubled THE OREGONIAN list in his vicinity during the past year—a compliment to his energy and to this paper.

The S. F. Call of the 14th has the following: "Ex-Minister E. B. Washburne, in company with E. D. Bishop, president of the New York and New Haven railroad, started for San Francisco in a special car yesterday morning, for a six weeks' trip in California, Oregon and Washington territory. This is the first visit of Mr. Washburne to the Pacific coast."

In the New London (Connecticut) Evening Telegram of May 3d we observe the following paragraph: "Gov. Hubbard was authorized by the last legislature to appoint delegates to represent the state at the international prison congress in Stockholm, Sweden, next August, and has selected the Hon. Benjamin Stark of this city, Gen. Francis A. Walker of New Haven, and Henry R. Towne of Stamford, president of the Yale Lock manufacturing company."

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The following note will require no explanation:

PORTLAND, Tuesday, May 21, 1878.
To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:
In behalf of the ladies of the "Orphanage Management" I write to thank you for your extreme kindness in advertising and noticing our entertainment so often and so well in your paper, and your generosity in not charging us anything for it. With many thanks, I remain, yours truly.
MRS. H. D. GREEN, Manager.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE BENEFIT.—There was present last evening at New Market theater a large audience on the occasion of the complimentary benefit tendered Miss Gertrude Melrose. Bulwer's beautiful comedy of the "Lady of Lyons" was produced quite acceptably, the beneficiary appearing in the role of Pauline, supported by a full company.

FERRY NOTICE.

Passengers to the Red Men's picnic to-day on the Stark street ferry will be required to pay fare both ways on going over, and will be returned free.

Coats of Portland were present A large and attentive audience greeted Rev Baker at 11 o'clock A M His sermon to the people on "Human Progress" was a masterly dis course none who heard it will ever forget it. At the close of the sermon Mr I W Case of the board of trustees read a re port of the financial condition of the church which showed that there was needed nearly $650 to cover all indebtedness An appeal was made for the required amount and in a very short time $650 was raised Prompt ly at 8 o'clock P M, an exceedingly large and intelligent audience was in waiting to hear Rev A. S. Coats, of Portland He spoke on "The Church as a Means of Teach ing." The discourse, to use no stronger words, was grand, impressive and instructive The appeal was again renewed for the remain der of money to pay off the indebtedness and it was very readily responded to and to the astonishment of the people, every dollar was raised."

A SORE SUBJECT —The late commercial editor of our morning contemporary once remarked that in all his commercial experience extending over a period of 20 years or more he never found a more difficult subject to handle or to wrestle with than potatoes He ought to try some of the butter now coming into market. Its strength would soon con vince him that handling potatoes was mere child's play Merchants find it very difficult to dispose of a great portion of it at any price There is still great need of reform among the majority of the butter makers

TOO MANY PASSENGERS —Capt John Evans master of the British ship City of Halifax was arrested yesterday charged with carrying more Chinese passengers than is allowed by law He was taken before U S commis sioner Lamson, but waiving an examinatio l was held to appear in the sum of $1,000 On giving the required bonds Capt Evans was released.

Fierce Fight with a Bear.

[From the Tacoma Herald]

On last Monday the 13th inst several young men went out hunting on horseback and when near Wm Nelson's farm they suddenly came upon two large bears They fired upon them and suc ceeded in killing one but the other ran for the timber and passed out of sight notwithstanding that one of the boys Johnny Northover put four charges of buck shot into him at short range As the bear seemed likely to escape, Adam Benson said he would ride around the thicket, which was a short distance and head him off He accord ingly started off alone and reached the other side of the wood before the bear He dismounted and tied his horse to a tree, and had waited but a few moments when the infuriated beast broke from the timber and rushed for him He fired two shots but the bear was upon him The beast rose upon his hind legs, as Adam struck at him with his rifle and knocked the weapon from his hands Then with a stroke of his paw he felled Adam to the earth knocking him between two logs and commenced to bite and claw him Adam held the beast from his throat by grasping him by the shaggy hair on each side of his head He is a powerful young man but he felt his strength beginning to fail and he knew that his only hope was in the knife that he carried in his belt He let go of the bear with his right hand and reached for the knife but found it was gone Thrusting the empty sheath into the bear's mouth he gave him self up for lost The beast was mangling the muscle of his arm in a terrible manner and would soon have killed him had not Jack Barnes dog Rover come upon them The dog attacked the bear fiercely and compelled him to leave Adam who managed to crawl upon his horse and rode back to where the rest of the party had stopped to skin the other bear When he reached them he was too weak to tell them what had happened His friends carried him home and on the way he man aged to tell them that he was not anxious to box with a bear soon again The hunters went to look for the bear but found he had escaped

As Benson's injuries are all flesh wounds it is thought he will soon recover but he may lose the use of one arm

IN THE WHOLE HISTORY OF MEDICINE no prepar ation has ever performed such marvelous cures or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S CHER RY PECTORAL which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ Against ordinary colds which are the forerunners of more serious disorders it acts speedily and surely always re lieving suffering and often saving life The pro tection it affords by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children makes it an inval uable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home No person can afford to be without it and those who have once used it never will From their knowledge of its composition and effects Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL in their practice and Clergymen recommend it It is ab solutely certain in its medical effects and will al ways cure where cures are possible For sale by all Dealers

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians or how much medicine you have tried it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections Consumption, Hem orrhages Asthma Severe Colds settled on the Breast Pneumonia Whooping Cough, &c who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint Con sumptives try just one bottle Regular size 75 cts Sold by all Druggists in America

The public has been misled by advertisements of bank rupt and clearance sales, etc., but the public is now con vinced that Kohn's Clothing Palace is the only first class and reliable Clothing House in this State, where you can get your money's worth. LETTER FROM CHIEF MOSES.

A dispatch was received a few days ago from Col Grover at Walla Walla which stated he was in re ceipt of a letter dictated by Chief Moses Through the courtesy of Gen Howard we have been per mitted to copy the following correspondence which will be sufficiently explanatory

FORT WALLA WALLA W T May 16 1878.
Assistant Adjutant General Department of the Co lumbia Portland Oregon—SIR I have the honor to transmit herewith the letter from Moses re ferred to in my telegram to day
Very respectfully your obedient servant
GROVER,
Col 1st Cavalry Commanding

[illegible] May 10 1878

Moses chief chief [illegible] says there are continually reports [illegible] him and his peo ple that the Bostons (white people) in and about Walla Walla think that he has two tum tums hearts or that he is not or has not told the truth in what he has been saying in re gard to being friendly with the whites and that he will never go to war Moses says I am and still say what I have said before I have but one mind and that is to be friendly to and peaceable to all and when these reports come to me my heart is sick and I think it is not right for the whites to talk so when we are trying to do what is right I hope the time is not far distant when Gen Howard will come and see me and my people, as he has promised to do and then I hope this will be set tled and there will be no more bad talk about me and my people Hoping whoever may read this will believe me and I shall be as good as my word All I want is to live in peace with all and die on this illahee (country) where my parents have lived and died I want all these bad stories about me to go like the wind I want to see all happy both whites and Indians

I am sick of the way Joseph done I will have no blood shed on my illahee I do not say any thing about my illahee I do not say to the Bostons if they come here go away nor do I drive them away This is not my tum tum I do not care if you come and settle Plenty of grass and stock for us both I have watched over this illahee a long time We have lived here a long time and I have watched it faithful I do not want the Bostons to pay the great white chief for this illahee This is not my tum tum But if I am wrong I shall not get mad I will not get angry and push you away and want to be friendly if you will let me and my people be so I am not like Smowhomer sleep (dream) and then tell my mind I am ashamed of him and think his false talk I do not want to see my old woman and children probably in that spirit way Tis not my tum tum I do not want to see this I want to live the balance of my days in peace with all I do not think that we had ought to be like dogs all the time My tum tum is to quit this way of doing and let us live in peace I do not want the whites to believe those bad reports they hear about me and my people

Gold in New York 101

Legal tenders in Portland—buying [illegible] selling par

Silver coin 2¾@3 per cent discount

The bright weather seems to have had an effect to create a fresh and considerable extent [illegible] our streets present [illegible] Many buyers from up the Willamette as well as from the north eastern country are in the city and the wholesale houses are enjoying a large trade

Monetarily the market shows no [illegible] that of [illegible] the rates on loans or discounts [illegible] in New York shows a light appreciation which is [illegible] above [illegible] the [illegible] preference for greenbacks over gold by those receiving payments of interest at the various sub treasuries throughout the country At the treasury department in Washington there has been large sums of greenbacks paid out daily The secretary of the treasury expects that the proportion of gold due on interest which will remain uncalled for on account of this preference for legal tenders will be very large and will play an important part in the matter of accumulating gold for the purposes of resumption

Byland's British [illegible] Trade [illegible] publishes Wood's tariff bill now before congress and remarks We think this new tariff bill will be read with interest by many of our readers If passed our iron and hardware merchants may again look forward to a renewal of trade between this country and the United States The editor of the Circular evidently thinks the revision is made to favor British interests, which most people outside of those who ride the free trade hobby admit that it will do to a great extent

The Wool Trade

This branch of the export trade of Oregon sets in rather slowly as the first of the season's clip is put in the market under dull and declining prices Growers are disposed to hold on for a short time deeming it hardly probable that much lower rates will rule On this point however there is a difference of opinion Receipts have increased somewhat this week, and with ten days of the bright warm weather now prevailing the movement will be very large Shearing is being prosecuted, and reports say the wool is in good condition and the yield of rather above average in weight Private advices from San Francisco say buyers have their ideas set upon a good class of wool for about such prices as they paid earlier in the season for dusty and burry poor lots Purchases are made principally by two or three manufacturing firms dealers holding out of the market for a further shading off in rates to admit of a possible margin for profit and it looks very much as if they would not be disappointed in this their position assumed Prices are yet above eastern parity and taking into consideration the condition of affairs in the manufacturing goods market it is only reasonable to say that there was little basis for the selling advantage gained Burry and scabby wool difficult of sale Handsome staple is the kind ready of sale Northern fancy commands 26c.

New York Freights and Markets

NEW YORK May 21 —In the clipper freight market there is no material change to note The Chas H Marshall and Eureka are the leading ships and one or both may get off by the close of the month Shipments are still chiefly of heavy and coarse goods, and none of the late departures have been full Railroad freights are also less active than for some time.

Markets dull and generally lower Flour more active at a reduction of 5@25c per barrel Wheat dull 2c lower closing flat and weak. Pork unchanged $8 90@$ 9. Rio coffees active, steady Refined sugars fair demand and steady Teas quiet. Petroleum quiet and easier. Spirits Turpentine dull, 35c. Hides quiet but more in buyers' favor. Sales of 1600 California private. Leather dull, prices weak. Wool—demand continues to fluctuate to a greater or less extent from day to day with now and then a little spurt of activity and occasionally a reasonably large sale. New clip California now here are selling very well and at pretty good prices, but cannot be depended upon to exceed 27c; higher figures being on small and choice selections only.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for this great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College a Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M. GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

Perils of the Deep

NEW YORK May 21 —The bark Carrie E [illegible], from Mantanzas reported Feb 11th, [illegible] the passage from Buenos Ayres to Mantanzas, 200 miles off the Brazilian coast, picked up a man on a raft in an exhausted condition, he having been there ten days A companion died after being on the raft four days, and was washed overboard and devoured by sharks.

Mexicans Preparing for another Raid.

NEW YORK, May 21 —The Times San Antonio special says news reached Gen Ord to-day that Mexicans are preparing for another extensive raid into Texas A section of the mounted artillery under Lieut Crawford is ordered to prepare 200 rounds of ammunition and to be ready to move to the front to-morrow. It is thought this raid is planned by Escobedo to procure horses for Lerdoists.

Prepared for the Fenians.

NORTH TROY Vt May 21 —A correspondent of the associated press visited several towns on the Canadian border and finds everywhere excitement The dominion militia are supplied with arms and ammunition and are ready at an hour's notice to concentrate forces to repel invasion

It is alleged that Irish nationalists are congregating at different points for an onslaught upon Montreal Quebec Ottawa and other prominent Canadian towns It is currently reported that arms and ammunition for weeks past have been brought into the provinces, where they are now concealed There are, without doubt, large numbers of men scattered all along the line Who and what they are the next few days will show.

Pennsylvania Democratic Convention.

PITTSBURG, May 22 —The Democratic state convention met this morning and was called to order by Capt. McClelland, chairman of the state committee The roll was called and the convention effected a temporary organization by the election of Hon Milton Spears, of [illegible] county, as temporary chairman. After the appointment of committees on permanent organization contested seats and resolutions, the convention adjourned until 3 P.M.

Religious News.

PITTSBURG May 22 —The Presbyterian General Assembly met this morning Rev. Fullerton presented a paper setting forth that the representative position of our United States naval officers, their eminent social rank and, their international religious influence when decisively Christian, make it a matter of first importance that the cadets in course of their training at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, who may have gone from Presbyterian supervision, and that they be not lost through neglect, lost to our denomination , therefore

Resolved, That this assembly urgently request Presbyterian parents who may have sons in the naval academy and all pastors of congregations, from which they may have gone to watch with special solicitude over their religious associations. Referred to committee.

The reception of report of the committee on foreign missions was here introduced The report was read by Rev Dr E D. Morris of Cincinnati. The report shows the receipts of the board from all sources to have been $463,[illegible] 46; expenditures, $511,160 92, including the debt of $43,032, at the end of last year, a deficiency of $47,000 The report brought forth considerable discussion. Rev. Dr. Lowry said the most important question to be considered is shall the board go forward or retreat in the face of a $40 000 debt.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 22 —Last evening the general synod of the Reformed church unanimously adopted a paper presented by Dr. C. Weiser, providing for the formation of a commission composed of members to be appointed by the different district synods according to numerical ratio This commission is empowered to take under consideration differences existing in the Reformed church for some years past.

Difference among the Doctors.

CHICAGO, May 22 —The Times' London special says a diplomatist known to have special sources of information says Beaconsfield begins to regard a European congress as probable, though Salisbury shakes his head ominously, under the influence of private intelligence from Constantinople Schouvaloff is believed to have authority to make great concessions to England The diplomatist says these will be formulated in such a way as to enable the marquis of Salisbury to discuss them and say exactly what England would object to, rather than what she would approve, to enable Schouvaloff to communicate with the czar and come to an understanding on debatable points

Nationals' Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22 —The state convention of the Nationals met this forenoon After organizing with James Buchanan as chairman, and listening to an address, the convention adjourned until 1 o clock

Equestrianship.
